POLI'S

In offering the eminent comedian, Charles Evans and his company of distinguished artists as the house attraction next week Manager Poli is giving to his Bridgeport patrons, one of the most meritorious topicals in the varieties. Mr. Evans is appearing in his newest comedy success, entitled "It's Up to You William" from the pen of George Arlson. New York critics speak highly of Mr. Evans and his latest creation. The piece teems with wholesome and irrepressible comedy situations and epigrams. Mr. Evans is assisted by a company including such stars as Charles Hopper, Helena Phillips, Amy Hamilton and Charles Arlson. The piece is a comedy of Mr. Evans in "It's Up to You William" at the Fifth Avenue theatre in New York proved a striking hit and has followed up this success at other leading metropolitan houses. Poli's patrons are promised a real headliner in this act. Mr. Evans is late of Evans and Hooty, who presented the late Charles Hoyt's most signal comedy success, "A Parlor Match."

One of the most artistic musical novelties will be a feature of next week's bill in Banks & Breazeale, versatile instrumental artists. The Sutcliffe troupe of Scotch pipers, drummers and dancers and acrobats will be a winning feature. Clark & Bergman will offer a clever song and dance act entitled "The Change of Change." Maida, Hickman Bros. & Co., will present their latest comedy hit, "A Detective Detected." Other winners will be the clever Titiars musical comedy actors who are making a hit on the circuit; Youna and Wardell, sensational Oriental jugglers; and the newest motion pictures on the Electograph.

Irene Franklin, the red-haired queen of vaudeville is continuing as the popular favorite at Poli's this week, offering her character songs and expressions. Miss Franklin's famous song "Red Head" is the song hit of the season. The best costume changes, Caron & Willard, in "The Dutch in Egypt" get the big laughs; Madame Caselli's wonderful Chihuahua Mexican dogs; The Raven Trio; Patsy Doyle and other good features are on the bill this week.

SMITH'S

In "The Happy Marriage," the latest emanation from the gifted pen of Clyde Fitch, which will be seen this evening, there will be found one of the most delightful comedies of the season. The playhouse should be filled to the limit of its seating capacity. In the cast are Doris Keane, Edwin Arden, and all the other brilliant productions that to the success of the production when it was seen in Boston, at the Hollis street theatre, and the stage production will be the same in every respect.

George M. Cohan's latest, "The American Ideal," comes to-morrow afternoon and evening. There is enough dash, vim, ginger, life and enterprise in "The American Ideal" to wake up a half-don moribund production at any other theatre. In fact, Mr. Cohan absolutely declines to have his connection referred to as anything else than a "musical comedy."

Another splendid bill of those magnificent animated picture plays and illustrated songs will be seen Monday afternoon and evening. Nowhere else than Smith's can you see these beautiful pictures in the proper manner, and with such extreme pleasure to yourself. Don't fail to see this bill Monday; you will certainly enjoy every moment of it.

Mme. Sarah Adler, at the head of the Yiddish Dramatic Co., next Tuesday evening will present the new Yiddish play, "The Broken Heart." Engagement. The wife of the noted Yiddish tragedian, Jacob P. Adler, and is herself an actress of exceptional ability.

To-morrow morning, the box office will begin the exchange of tickets sold by the members of the Commercial Travellers' Association, for the next Thursday of "The Travelling Salesman." No seats will be sold for cash to-morrow, the day being devoted to the exchange of tickets, but Monday morning, the sale will be thrown open to the public.

A RELIGIOUS AUTHOR'S

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble, and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commented on Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." F. B. Brill, local agent.
